

Palette to Palate Long Table Dinner

Friday, July 6th 7PM

Palette to Palate Long table Dinner is a unique culinary experience created by chef Linnea Rufo and featuring the work of special guest artist Mary Jane Miller. Enliven both your taste and visual senses as you enjoy a Russian inspired feast, surrounded by her Icons, which tell us about the highest and best experiences of our human condition.

Chef Linnea Rufo is more than just a lover of food, she is inspired by the dining experience, capturing the spirit of the table, creating a mood, and evoking feelings or places through her delicate and perfectly paired meals. With years of culinary experience and a life long passion for bringing people together, Chef Linnea creates a warm environment where friends and family can come together and enjoy the rewards of sharing culinary delights. Casa Linnea is a place where friendships and unforgettable experiences can be made. To learn more about her upcoming events visit her website: LinneaRufoEvents.com

Mary Jane Miller is an internationally known artist whose work is set to accentuate the atmosphere of this Russian feast. Miller's work is alive with gold and silver, deep tones of color. Her beautiful byzantine images are filled with gracefully executed strokes of egg emulsion and ground stone called egg tempera. Mary Jane is not represented anywhere in San Miguel Allende so this collection of work is not to be missed! To see more of her work and available pieces for purchase visit see her website. <http://sanmiguelicons.com>

In order to finalize your reservation we require full payment in advance, email linnearufoevents@gmail.com for more information and prices.